Martin, Leigh, Laws & Fritzen Expanding Office

Kristin Campbell | 09 22 06

The Kansas City office of Martin, Leigh, Laws & Fritzen, a law firm specializing in foreclosure and other

The law firm is preparing to move into the top two floors of the building in which the firm currently operates next Friday, Sept. 29. The new office will give the firm approximately 13,000 square feet. The law firm's office is on the first floor and part of the sixth floor, and will be moving into the eighth and ninth floors. Several offices will be continued growth. A title company affiliated with MLL&F will move to the seventh floor.

The firm says the move is necessary to accommodate the growing staff. Two attorneys, Robert Swiss and another attorney, Desarae Harrah, is scheduled to join the firm within the past year, along with support staff, and another attorney, Desarae Harrah, is scheduled to join. Harrah will bring the total number of attorneys in the Kansas City office to 11, while two attorneys operate in St. Louis.

Lennie Slaughter, the firm's accounting manager and administrative assistant, says the firm employed 19 employees about a year ago. There are now about 80 employees. About 35 of those employees work for the firm's affiliate, MLL&F.

MLL&F represents creditors in Missouri and Kansas with an emphasis on mortgage foreclosure, bankruptcy, and real estate. Services include legal representation in foreclosure sales and REO auctions and also in evictions. The firm includes Washington Mutual, EMC Mortgage, HSBC Mortgage, Freddie Mac's Homesteps, USFN and Fannie Mae Outsourcing, among others.
